Community Grants Program Open Now Through August 31

Springfield – The Community Foundation for the Land of Lincoln is now accepting proposals for its Community Grants Program. The deadline for this grant cycle is Friday, August 31, 2018.

The Community Grants Program is the local unrestricted grantmaking program at the Community Foundation. The program accepts funding requests for any charitable focus in Cass, Christian, Logan, Macoupin, Menard, Montgomery, Morgan, and/or Sangamon County, Illinois. Multiple grant awards of up to $2,500 each will be made from the Community Grants Program. Applicants will be notified of the funding decision by early November.

Applications for the program can be accessed through the Community Foundation’s web site – www.CFLL.org.

Through philanthropic services, strategic grantmaking and community leadership, the Community Foundation for the Land of Lincoln “connects people who care with causes that matter.”
