Community Grants Program Open Now Through September 3

SPRINGFIELD – The Community Foundation for the Land of Lincoln is now accepting proposals for its Community Grants Program. The deadline for this grant cycle is September 3, 2019.

The Community Grants Program is the local unrestricted grantmaking program at the Community Foundation. Nonprofits are invited to apply for up to $2,500 for any charitable focus in Cass, Christian, Logan, Macoupin, Menard, Montgomery, Morgan, and/or Sangamon County, Illinois. Applicants will be notified of funding decisions by early November.

“We launched Community Grants ten years ago to connect donors with a wide variety of important causes,” said Stacy Reed, Vice President of Programs & Marketing. “We’re thrilled that this program has grown into such a valued resource both for donors and nonprofits.”

Applications for Community Grants can be accessed through the Community Foundation’s web site – www.CFLL.org.

Through philanthropic services, strategic grantmaking and community leadership, the Community Foundation for the Land of Lincoln “connects people who care with causes that matter.”
